CONFERS WITH ALLIES

Minister Bowen Begins Negotiations to Settle Castro's Difficulties.

EARLY RELIEF IS NOW EXPECTED.

Allies' Agreement is Ironclad, and if Blockade is Raised They Will Act Together—Question of Guaranty.

Washington, Jan. 26.—A long conference between Minister Bowen and Sir Michael Herbert, the British ambassador, followed by further conferences between Sir Michael, Signor Mayor Des Planches, the Italian ambassador, and Count Quadt, the German charge d'affaires indicated diplomatic activity in Washington over the Venezuelan situation. All the negotiators decline to discuss the results of the meeting, but general statements by them that the situation warrants hope of early relief is significant of what has been accomplished by the last 24 hours.

By this time the London, Berlin and Rome foreign offices are in possession of Mr. Bowen's third proposition stating the nature of the guarantee he is prepared to offer for Venezuela if his initial request is complied with and the blockade raised at once. Strict reticence is maintained by all the negotiators as to the nature of this guaranty and until the joint reply of the powers is received this will not be disclosed.

Mr. Bowen and also the state department are greatly impressed with the attitude of the representatives in Washington of the allies throughout the present negotiations. While acting at all times under instructions from their foreign offices they have expedited matters considerably by their straightforward manner of dealing with Venezuela's report. This fact has especially appealed to the Washington officials, who, while not participating in the preliminaries necessarily are vitally interested in their results.

There will be further conferences between all of the negotiators but no definite action is expected regarding the blockade before Tuesday or Wednesday. Throughout his negotiations here Mr. Bowen has dealt separately with the foreign envoys, while they have kept in constant touch with one another. There has been no joint action on their part.

The important fact was developed that the triple alliance against Venezuela was far more comprehensive than was supposed at first. The agreement between Great Britain, Germany and Italy involved only a joint initiative action for the collection of their claims, but each of the three powers pledged itself to lift the blockade simultaneously. This fact was learned from a European diplomat who is acquainted with the details of the alliance. The iron-clad nature of the alliance already had been communicated to the state department by Charge White and it is this fact which was responsible for the grave apprehensions heretofore felt regarding the outcome of the dispute. The reply of the powers therefore necessarily will be joint.

A favorable answer to Minister Bowen's last proposition, and it is the belief of all the negotiators as well as of the administration that the answer will be favorable, will mean the immediate withdrawal of all the blockading ships, while a declaration to accept the guaranty offered by Mr. Bowen must result in the continuance of the blockade by all three allies, Great Britain, Germany and Italy.

Claim Berlin Planned Attack.

Caracas, Jan. 26.—To inquiries made with a view to ascertaining whether the German gunboat Panther or Fort San Carlos fired the first shot, the foreign minister said: "The Panther on Jan. 17 attacked the fort first without provocation. The gunboat approached the fort and fired on it. We can guarantee that the attack was premeditated and planned in Berlin. The proof of this assertion is a letter we received on the morning of Jan. 16 from Curacao, and which President Castro retains in his possession, notifying us that San Carlos would be attacked between Jan. 16 and Jan. 18, that is to say, before the arrival of United States Minister Bowen at Washington. Another proof that the attack was premeditated is the circumstance that General Bello, who is in command of the fortress, received no notification as to the object of the Panther in approaching the fortress similar to the written ultimatum that the Germans transmitted through the United States consul to the Venezuelan representative at Puerto Cabello when Fort Libertador was shelled." The letter referred to above has been communicated to certain legations.

BRITISH TRADE ROUSED.

Cuban Treaty Held a Discrimination Against the English West Indies.

London, Jan. 26.—The reciprocity treaty between Cuba and the United States threatens to raise one of the most serious differences of opinion between Great Britain and the United States that has occurred for years. So much importance is attached to the matter that a meeting of the cabinet is being specially summoned to see what action can be taken. The matter came to a head through the deputation from the Chamber of Commerce of the United Kingdom which waited upon Foreign Secretary Lansdowne. Replying to the delegates' argument that all advantages which the government had gained by securing the abolition of the sugar bounties would be sacrificed if the Cuban reciprocity treaty became operative, Lord Lansdowne said he thoroughly realized the gravity of the situation and proceeded to read dispatches showing that Ambassador Herbert had forcefully represented the British objections to the treaty, pointing out that it was to all intents and purposes a discrimination against all the British possessions in the West Indies. Secretary Hay's reply maintained that the United States was doing no more than it had the right to do and intimated that it had no intention of modifying the Cuban treaty.

Lord Lansdowne added that all the information available pointed to the fact that the treaty would pass, but he announced that the cabinet would consider if anything further could be done. The delegates said they understood the treaty contains a secret clause stipulating that no further measures of reciprocity shall be undertaken by the United States towards the British West Indies. If such was the case it was suggested to Lord Lansdowne that Great Britain would be only within her rights in retaliating with an increased duty on grain. The foreign secretary gave no intimation on this point.

To Act on Treaties.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Senator Culom will make an effort whenever an opportunity offers to secure consideration of the Cuban treaty and he said he would again move, if necessary, to have the senate go into executive session during the week for the purpose of taking up the treaty. Senator Culom also has in charge the Panama canal treaty, and expresses a desire to secure early consideration of it, but as several of the members of the committee on foreign relations, before which the treaty is pending, find it necessary to be out of the city during the week, it does not now seem probable that the canal treaty will be reported out of committee during the week.

Business in the House.

Washington, Jan. 26.—This week will probably witness the passage by the house of the Fowler currency bill. The house managers have arranged to bring in a special rule making that measure a continuing order until disposed of, beginning on Wednesday next. While it is anticipated that the bill will precipitate a very lively debate, its friends believe that its passage is assured. There are three appropriation bills on the calendar, and if any time should remain they will be pressed forward, as it is the desire of the leaders to get all appropriation bills to the senate as soon as possible. The anti-trust bill will not come up until next week.

Held Memorial Services.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The house of representatives inaugurated the experiment of holding memorial services for deceased members upon the Sabbath. It will be followed hereafter during this session and probably will become the general practice in the house in the future. Heretofore, except on very rare occasions, the house has broken in on its executive work on Friday and Saturday to listen to eulogies on deceased members, but the time has seldom been propitious and latterly the practice has been meeting with growing disfavor.

Shot From Ambush.

Middlesboro, Ky., Jan. 26.—Henry Cummings, notorious among the highwaymen of the mountains, met death from ambush before daybreak here on one of the principal streets. James Adley Turner, who was walking with him, was shot in the arm. The assassins are unknown. It is common report that Cummings killed John Gorman, president of the United Mine Workers union, two years ago; Greenward Ward soon afterward, and about a year ago Branham Elam, a Kentuckian, while the death of others is generally attributed to him, so that it is almost impossible for officers to get a clue as to the assassins.

Lancaster O., Jan. 26.—In its report the grand jury charges Charles F. Wheeler, whose wife was found dead in a well near Lithopolis, with first-degree murder.

FIGHTING STATEHOOD.

Opponents to Use Dilatory Tactics to Prevent Final Ballot.

QUAY WILL URGE CONSIDERATION.

Lines in Senate Are Closely Drawn, but the Final Action on the Statehood Bill Yet Remains in Doubt.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The feature of the week in the senate will be the continuation of the contest over the statehood bill. The lines are now more closely drawn than they have ever been on this bill. They are, indeed, so taunt that all onlookers realize that they are about to break; but few unprejudiced persons would undertake to state positively on which side the disaster must befall.

The advocates of statehood were much encouraged by the vote of last week, and contending that it has been demonstrated that a majority of the senate are favorable to the bill, they declare that it is preposterous to ask them to yield, while the opposition urge that the vote was not a test at all and no real indication of the attitude of the senate. They say that the bill is standing in the way of other legislation and contend that it must get out of the road and remain out when the appropriation bills begin to press to the front, as they will soon do. It is probable, however, that with some exceptional times the bill will hold its place in the front ranks during the week.

It is the intention, however, to use the appropriation bills only in case there should be an effort to hold night sessions in order to secure action on the statehood bill. Senator Quay has more than once indicated his intent of asking the senate to "sit continuously," which means that he is contemplating night sessions. The general understanding among the friends of the measure is that the prolonged session test will come early in the week, possibly about Tuesday night, but the Pennsylvania senator has so far failed to make authoritative announcement on that point. Senator Quay now asserts his intention to press the bill more strenuously than in the past, and the opposition is just as pronounced in its declaration of intention to resist its passage. They say that the bill cannot pass, and some of them announce that they would rather take the responsibility for an extra session of congress than have the statehood bill become a law.

When the question was again taken up Senator Burnham proceeded with his speech and it is now the plan to have Senator Kean follow him. Senator Beveridge also will be heard in opposition to the bill. Several senators will antagonize the bill and be prepared if necessary to introduce extraneous matter for the purpose of preventing a vote. For instance, one of them has on his desk a copy of the encyclopedic speech delivered by Senator Quay during the consideration of the Wilson-Gorman tariff bill, which he threatens to read, and another has at hand a voluminous history of New Mexico.

If night sessions are attempted the opponents of the bill will resort to the usual methods to kill time. On the other hand, it is admitted the supporters of the bill will take a bold stand against allowing any other business to proceed until a vote shall be secured on the statehood bill. Some would even go to the extent of excluding appropriation bills. There is some apprehension on the part of the bill's supporters that there may be an effort to unduly discuss and delay consideration of the appropriation bills in order to delay the statehood bill, and such a course will be resented.

Railroad Man Suicides.

Huntington, Ind., Jan. 26.—Robert Kinalrd, at one time general passenger and ticket agent of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati & Louisville railroad, with headquarters at Fort Wayne, committed suicide here by taking morphine. Five years ago he was general auditor of the Santa Fe railroad at Wichita, Kas. No cause is known for the act.

Attacked by a Bull.

Lancaster, O., Jan. 26.—A young bull, which broke away from his owners, attacked a traveling salesman of Portsmouth named Borstrum, trampling upon him and so severely injuring him that physicians say he is fatally hurt. The tragic scene took place on a public street.

Liner St. Paul Broke Down.

Southampton, Jan. 26.—The American liner St. Paul broke down in Southampton water shortly after sailing for New York, owing to a mishap to her machinery. It is said the injury is trivial and that it will cause only a few hours' delay.

SHOOTING AT COTTAGEVILLE.

Officer Wounded, But He Knocked Out His Assailant and Landed Him in Jail.

VANCEBURG, Ky., January 23.—Deputy Sheriff W. D. Hendrickson, of this county, accompanied by his wife, went shopping at Cottageville, to-day, and while in the store of E. C. Henderson, Wesley Osborn came in and began at once to abuse the officer. Hendrickson tried to quiet him, but could not, and as he arose out of a chair Osborn shot him in the left cheek, the ball entering near the mouth and coming out back of his ear.

Hendrickson picked up a large poker, knocked Osborn down and beat him up badly. He then took two No. 38 revolvers from him and a Winchester repeating rifle that Osborn had left outside the store door, and arrested him and put him in his buggy and brought him to jail.

Osborn has, it is alleged, been a notorious law-breaker. Only yesterday five indictments were returned against him by the grand jury. Hendrickson is painfully wounded, but Osborn is in a worse condition.

COMING TO THE FAIR.

Cincinnati's Chamber of Commerce and Business Men's Club Will Send Big Delegations.

[Enquirer.]

The Business Men's Club and members of the Chamber of Commerce are making elaborate arrangements to attend the fourth annual tobacco and corn fair at Mayeville, Ky., on Saturday, February 21. The fair will be held under the auspices of the Maysville Board of Trade, and President John Duley, of that body, in a letter to the Enquirer, states that large delegations will be in attendance.

The Business Men's Club has appointed Mr. John L. Shuff Chairman of the local Committee of Arrangements, and Hon. Harry L. Gordon is down on the program for the principal address.

The Cincinnati leaf tobacco interests have chartered a special car for the local tobacco trade, with a half round-trip rate.

The Central Christian Church, St. Louis, Howard T. Cree, formerly of this city, minister, has just closed one of the most successful years of its history. Nearly $6,000 was raised for all purposes; all obligations were met, and there was a balance in the treasury; $2,158 was raised for missions and benevolences. Since Bro. Cree's ministry began there, a debt of $600 has been paid off, and many added to the membership; more money has been raised, and a deeper spirit of consecration has pervaded the entire work.

Another link in the through trolley line from Cincinnati to Pittsburg has been added by a franchise through Ravenswood, W. Va., which was secured by a local company. The Camden Interstate railway will connect with this road and it is thought one company will own or control the entire route at no very distant day.

POYNTE BROS. are the only Maysville distillers selling pure liquors by the quart, gallon or barrel, direct from distillery to consumer. Seven-year-old whiskey $2 per gallon. Age and quality guaranteed. Get the best. Office 126 Market street—Watson's old stand.

Mountain Cure For Small-Pox.

[Grayson Tribune.]

Sam Wilcox says if you will sleep twenty-one nights in succession with a fresh polecat hide under your pillow, changing the hide every night, you nor your family nor your kinsmen out West will take the small-pox.

TELLER MAKES CLAIMS

Colorado Senator States His Election Was Legal and Regular.

MAY CARRY CONTEST TO SENATE.

Governor Peabody May Refuse to Issue Credentials—Republicans Will Not Recognize Election by Democrats of Teller.

Denver, Jan. 26.—Henry M. Teller, who was elected for his sixth term in the United States senate Saturday at a joint legislative session, in which only Democrats participated, left the city for his country place at Grand Junction. Governor Peabody was a passenger in the same train. The two men met in the train and Governor Peabody extended congratulations to the senator.

"My election, I feel sure, was perfectly legal and regular," said Senator Teller, in conversation with friends, "for I succeeded in getting the majority vote of both houses. I am entitled to a certificate from the governor and expect it, but if I fail to secure the governor's credentials, I shall be able to take my case before the senate nevertheless." When asked if he would sign a certificate of election for Senator Teller, Governor Peabody replied: "I will cross that bridge when I come to it."

D. B. Fairley, chairman of the Republican state committee, whose resignation has been demanded by vote of the majority committee on account of his opposition to the candidacy of E. O. Wolcott for the senatorship, has given out a statement declaring that the Republicans will not recognize Teller's election.

"In my opinion," he said, "the election was illegal, and no attention will be paid to it by the state central committee or either faction of the Republicans in the house or senate. The election is invalid for the reason that the proper officers did not preside over the joint session."

TEMPESTUOUS VOYAGE.

Steamer Dawson City Arrives After Meeting Many Accidents.

Port Townsend, Wash., Jan. 26.—The steamer Dawson City, 86 days from Nome, reached port under sail after a tempestuous voyage. The entire trip was marked by a succession of accidents and exasperating delays, while the fury of the elements seemed to combine to hinder her passage to her destination. Soon after starting south the boilers commenced to leak, with the result that the fresh water supply was consumed. Then fuel began to run short and the vessel was forced to resort to such canvas aboard as could be fashioned into sails. The vessel run into port Moller for fuel and water, and after remaining two weeks started again, only to run into a fierce storm which drove her from her course. Again fuel ran out, so the Dawson City headed for Dutch Harbor to refill her bunkers and tanks. At this port her sailors deserted and refused to continue the voyage. The run from Dutch Harbor to this port was made in 22 days, which is considered a very good showing considering the weather and the facilities for handling; the vessel. The Dawson City brought no passengers except her owner, Felix Brown, of Seattle, and his wife.

Decisive Battle Expected.

Tangier, Jan. 26.—News from Fez dated Jan. 21, states that the pretender, Bu Hamara, was then advancing at the head of large forces and had arrived at a point 25 miles from Fez. A decisive battle was expected, and should the sultan's main army, which is posted on the Sebti river, be defeated it was thought that the city of Fez would inevitably fall into the hands of Bu Hamara.

Concession Is Made.

Pittsburg, Jan. 26.—It was announced by D. J. Burke, who represented the conductors at a recent conference with Baltimore & Ohio railroad officials, at Baltimore, that an agreement had been sanctioned by the company granting a 10 per cent advance in wages to date from Jan. 1. The advance extends over all branches of the road and is given to conductors, brakemen and yardmen.

Colonel Woolley Dead.

Cincinnati, Jan. 26.—Colonel Charles W. Woolley is dead, aged 72. He was one of the oldest members of the Cincinnati bar, and was a very active politician in the Democratic party of 20 or 30 years ago, though never an office holder. In his later years he led a retired life.

Hanged Himself in Jail.

Madison, Ind., Jan. 26.—A man named Shafer shot five times and killed Richard Smith at Vevay, and when lodged in jail cut his clothing into strings and hanged himself.

A GOOD REPORT.

The Lexington Herald publishes in full the excellent annual report of Dr. Young, President of the Health Board of that city. The "small-pox" matter seems to have been very judiciously handled, and to have excited little, if any, popular apprehension and complaint. There were seventy-one cases of this disease and no deaths, a result that must be credited, in part at least, to the skillful measures of the Board of Health.

The closing paragraph of the report embodies some good suggestions which ought to be favorably considered by the authorities of this city—by our Board of Trade as well as by our Board of Health:

I must again urge the necessity of a plumbing inspector. The escape of sewer gas into residences from improper and imperfect plumbing is the cause of many preventable diseases, which not infrequently result in death. It is possible to construct plumbing and house drainage so as to render them perfectly safe. Some of the infections are no ventilation on soil or waste pipe, leaking waste pipes, so small as to render water service inadequate, leaking soil pipe, improper fall, imperfect cement, imperfect design and plumbing fixtures, not separately trapped or ventilated. Privy vaults should not be permitted in thickly populated parts of the city. There is no reason for them, where sewers are convenient. They are a menace to health and a damage to surrounding property, and have caused hundreds of complaints during the past year. We should follow the example of cities that have abolished them. Let us bear in mind that the future great city of this continent will be that city whose death rate year after year bears witness to its efficient sanitary administration. A city that can offer to the world the advantages of pure air, pure water, a sewerage system adapted to every want and need of its inhabitants, not only for the present, but for the future; its streets paved with a durable and sanitary material; its garbage and ashes removed during the midnight hours; its streets swept, cleaned and sprinkled before business hours; its avenues shaded by trees, whose properties are health-giving—in fact, the fact of nature changed to meet the needs and wants of its inhabitants—such a city would be the magnet to draw to its bosom the wealth and culture of a continent.

STATE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

It Will Be Held May 9th and Candidates Must Enter by April 1st.

The Democratic State Executive Committee, at a meeting in Louisville Saturday, issued a call for a State primary on May 9th.

The candidates for State offices must give notice in writing of their candidacy to Chairman Allie W. Young by April 1.

Every member of the committee was represented either in person or by proxy. The meeting was harmonious throughout. Even Mr. Charles M. Meacham, of Hopkinsville, was in a good humor. He made a speech in which he stated that while he was as much opposed to the primary as ever, he was not a bolter.

The committee recommended that the officers of election shall be appointed by the various county committees, but the State Executive Committee reserves the right to change these officers wherever complaint is made. The various county committees are to meet at their respective county seats on May 12th, and tabulate the returns and pass upon questioned ballots.

The committee fix the assessment for the various offices as follows:

Governor, $2,500; Lieutenant Governor, $600; Attorney General, $1,800; Auditor, $2,200; Treasurer, $1,800; Secretary of State, $1,800; Superintendent of Public Instruction, $1,800; Clerk of Court of Appeals, $1,800; Commissioner of Agriculture, $1,700; total $16,000.

In the event that a candidate for one of the above offices shall have no opposition he shall pay the entire assessment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cushman, formerly of Dover, have moved from their farm in Virginia to Bon Air, a suburb of Richmond, where they are pleasantly situated. Mr. Cushman is now in the tobacco business at Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Cushman are entertaining a young son, their seventh child and fourth boy.

If you want to purchase the purest and best goods on earth go to G. W. Rogers & Co., 127 Market street, where you will find old Bourbon and rye whisky, apple and peach brandy, California brandy, malt gin, California port, sherry and Maderia, K. Embroideries.....

Nainsooks, Cambrics, Swisses are the foundations. And they are fine—not uneven, not coarse, not loaded or sized with starch. These are matched sets, including full and demi-full flouncings, allover, edgings and insertings in all widths, beadings, galloons and motifs that may be separated. There are delicate effects in tuckings and French embroidery plain or combined with lace. There are elaborate designs in demi-flouncings for skirt ruffles and corset covers both in blind and open-work effects. St. Gall hand-run shuttles do all the work. Margins are wide, scallops are button-holed and deep, strong and cut out. The same patterns running through several widths are appreciated by women of fastidious taste. Prices mean little apart from the goods. Come here and SEE what values you can get in edges and insertings for 5c., 10c., 15c. In allover for 50c., 75c. In elaborate edges, beadings and insertings for 19c., 25c., 35c. In very fine allover for $1, $1.25, $1.50.

ENGLISH PENANG, 12 1-2c.

A justly favored cotton goods long identified with this house and entirely controlled by us, continues to merit the palm of superiority. Good Towels---A Chance to Save.

Are you a thrifty woman? Then these towel offerings will appeal to you. But be quick, for such towels at the price do not linger long. Grass bleached hemmed huck towels, 22x38 inches, pure white or colored borders, 12½c.

Stockings

FOR WOMEN.

It's a long time yet to the season of light weight in hosiery. Here is a stocking that ought to interest every woman with two feet. At 15c. a pair. Winter weight cotton, black with unbleached feet, split soles or all black, soles, heels and toes reinforced. Stockings dyed with a black that makes them stay black. There's importance in hosiery buying, as to how many profits you pay. For a long time we have reached past all middlemen and bought from the men who make hosiery. If we purchased in the ordinary way the stockings we describe to-day would be 20c. instead of 15c.

Gould which has been running in opposition to the White Collar Line from Cincinnati to Portsmouth, will soon be withdrawn from that trade by Leach & Parsons, her owners. The gentlemen who tried to buy the Gould on the installment plan have failed to come up with the coin and as a result are said to be several hundred dollars in the hole."

BOBBY BURNS.

Local Admirers of the Scotch Poet Celebrate His Birthday Anniversary.

A number of the admirers of the great Scottish poet, Robert Burns, met at the St. Charles Hotel Saturday evening to pay homage to his genius, and in a suitable manner commemorate the 144th anniversary of his birth. The poet's works were crowned with glory, as the hours sped past, midst song and story.

Indeed, it was just such a company as the poet himself would have loved to join. To mention the many good things said about him would be out of place, as they would fill a volume. No longer confined to the land of his birth, his fame is now universal, and admirers are to be found throughout the civilized world, and gatherings such as this are to be found in the remotest parts of the earth. So after a feast of reason, flashes of wit, flow of soul and passing round the steaming bowl, all felt that it was well for them to be there. The program of the evening closed with all joining in singing "Auld Lang Syne."

And as the town clock's hammer struck the bell, its measured strokes pronounce the hour of twilight.

Each homeward merrily wend his way,
Pledging oft to meet again some other day.

A MAYSVILLE NEGRO

In Custody at Cincinnati on Charge of Criminal Assault—Half Brother to Dick Coleman.

William Coleman, who says he is a half-brother of the negro burned at Maysville for an assault on a white woman, is held at Central Police Station on suspicion, although there is evidence hanging over him which the police say will, beyond a doubt, convict him of the assault upon Miss Margaret Hottes several nights ago.

Coleman is thought to be the same man upon whose trail the police have been for several days. After being seen at Remington Thursday morning Coleman walked across the country to Montgomery and camped by a fire in the vicinity of that village Thursday night. Friday morning R. S. Nelson, who owns a farm in that neighborhood, saw the man, and having read of the search for him took him in custody and turned him over to the Marshal of Blue Ash. That official notified police headquarters and Detectives Sweeney and Calnan brought Coleman to the city. He was taken to Bethesda Hospital in Avondale, where Miss Hottes is slowly recovering from the brutal assault. About his neck he wore a dirty calico rag, in lieu of a muffler. This was shown to the young woman, who, without any hesitation, stated that it was the one used by her assailant in an effort to gag her.

Then the man was led into the room. As soon as the victim saw him she exclaimed "That's the man," and fainted. She was soon restored to consciousness and was able to look at marks upon one of the man's fingers. She had previously told the police that in the struggle she bit the negro upon the hand, and gave the opinion that marks would be found there if the right man was caught. While the skin isn't broken on the finger, teeth marks can be seen.

Coleman is a laborer, twenty-seven years of age, who claims Maysville, Ky., as his home. He also averred at police headquarters that he had been discharged from the army at San Francisco on Thanksgiving Day. He states that on the night the assault was committed he was at the new waterworks at California, Ohio.

A few of the important features to be seen in "The Missouri Girl" which appears at Washington Opera House Wednesday, January 28th, are the sensational mine explosion with its comical finale, the powerful dramatic scene in the second act where the villain takes advantage of the old farmer's simplicity: the beautiful drawing-room scene, where the Missouri folks visit old friends; the old-fashioned Missouri hoedown; the birthday party where all the members of the cast show their ability as vaudeville artists; the thrilling, sensational climax where the villain attempts to dispose of his antagonists by the use of dynamite, and is himself killed by the explosion. Seat sale opens Tuesday morning, at Nelson's.

HERE'S A POINTER!

A Proposition to Farmers That Would Tickle the "Original Rib."

We are pleased to announce that notwithstanding the recent advance in wire goods, our prices on AMERICAN FIELD FENCE will remain the same for a FEW DAYS. A purchase of five car-loads late in the Fall enables us to continue the old quotations for a short time only. PRICES ARE GOING HIGHER and we would not be surprised at any time to receive advices of a further advance. Our present figures are much lower than we can promise to name a month hence and are subject to withdrawal without notice. Farmers would do well to anticipate future needs and buy while we are in position to make this offer.

THE FRANK OWENS HARDWARE COMPANY

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Week's Business Was a Satisfactory One
All 'Round—Advanced Prices for Colory Grades.

	Week.	1903.	1902.	1903.	1902.
Offerings of new hdds....	900	414	3,409	1,069
Offerings of old hdds....	861	918	1,673	1,789
Total hdds.....	1,761	1,332	5,082	2,858
Rejections.....	353	293	914	585
Actual sales.....	1,408	1,039	4,168	2,273
Receipts.....	783	855	3,218	2,435

The 900 hdds. new tobacco averaged $7.19 per 100 pounds, as against $7.06 for the 931 hdds. last week and $6.61 for the 414 hdds. in the corresponding week last year.

A review of the transactions of the week shows it to have been one of the most satisfactory to shippers and warehouse interests for many months. Probably the best feature was the decided improvement at advanced prices for colory goods of the old crop, all grades above $7—trashers, lugs and medium to fine cutting leaf—showing in the better feeling, these types showing an advance of from 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. as compared with two weeks ago.

Short red fillers of good quality in the old crop were also stronger, under a good competitive demand between the big buyers and some of the leading independent manufacturers.

The higher prices and exceptional demand for old colory goods is easily accounted for in the fact that manufacturing interests have evidently come to the conclusion that the proportion of colory in the new crop will not come up to early expectations, and will fall far short of meeting the requirements of the year.

The Continental Company has been reaching out for everything of decided merit in this line during the week, and such large independent concerns as Scotten-Dillon and Nall & Williams were also strong factors in the field.

The demand is bringing out a large proportion of the reserve holdings in the hands of speculators, considerable of which is being taken at private sale.

The low grades of old under $6 have not done so well, being somewhat irregular, but, on the whole, firm and stronger in sympathy with the better types.

Little, if any, change in new tobacco was noticeable throughout the week, except in the medium and finer grades, which were about one-fourth of a cent higher than last week. While the bulk of the offerings were of the low and medium grades—trashers and lugs under $8—there was also a pleasing variety of the finer types. Over 100 hdds. selling during the week at prices ranging from $10 to $14.75, while a few packages of choice cigarette wrappers brought from $15 to $18.50 per 100 pounds.

The pleasing feature about the offerings of new tobacco during the week is the fact that generally speaking they were in very fine condition, free from moisture and damp, and give every evidence of careful and conscientious packing. These conditions give encouragement to buyers, and should be fostered by every interest in the trade, the ultimate result of which will be to give the largest measure of satisfaction to growers and shippers in the prices obtained.

Live Stock Market.

(Cincinnati Live Stock Review.)

Cattle prices had a slightly downward tendency during the week. The receipts were fairly liberal, but no more than the average run recently, but on nearly every day the market was slow. On Monday there was a 10@15c. decline and again on Wednesday another drop of 10c. occurred.

The hog market had a 15@20c. decline until Tuesday, when prices advanced until they are about the same as a week ago. The receipts were about the same as a week ago, but in other markets receipts were larger, which caused the easier feeling. There has been a fairly active demand all week.

The receipts of sheep and lambs were hardly up to the recent average. The demand for sheep was good and prices well maintained, though not materially higher. Lambs were more irregular, steady to strong part of the time, but during the past few days are somewhat easier and about 10@15c. lower than a week ago.

A GREAT TRUTH.

How it Has Spread From Home to Home in Maysville.

In every part of Maysville; in the homes of the wealthy, in the humble abode of the man of toil, 'tis now a well-known fact, a great truth, that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought more comfort to backache sufferers and cured more sick kidneys than any medicine of modern times.

Mrs. M. C. Chisholm, of 343 East Second street, says: "Mr. Chisholm speaks in high terms of Doan's Kidney Pills. He procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, and their use proved them to be an effective kidney remedy. I have heard others express their appreciation of Doan's Kidney Pills. A medicine which cures kidney trouble is a most desirable one of which to know."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
